

The present products range

- hypodermic syringes and needles for single use
- insulin and tuberculin syringes
- intravenous cannulas
- lancets
- veterinary needles
- mercury tonometer
- made-to-order cannula
- ETO sterilization
- assembly in cleanrooms
- supplementary assortment of medical materials

CHIRANA T. Injecta, a.s. carries on the tradition of the medical devices production in Stará Turá. The manufacture beginnings go back to 1947 when production of glass syringes was launched. Thanks to the dynamic production programme and continual development of new products the company has started to manufacture disposable plastic syringes in 1970 followed by disposable needles in 1975. One of the most important company's achievement is dated in 1991 when the production of lancets has been established. Present product range is focused primarily in the field of hypodermic syringes and needles for single use and lancets.

Nowadays the company produces over 300 million disposable syringes, more than 280 million hypodermic needles for single use and hundreds millions of lancets each year. The company also holds CE mark in compliance with the EU Directives N.: 93/42/EEC and ISO 13485:2003 certification for the products and services.

At present, CHIRANA T. Injecta, a.s. sells its products in many countries all over the world and that places the company amongst the leading world's producers in this field.

Team
CHIRANA T. Injecta, a.s.

CHIRANA T. Injecta
Slovak Republic

