IF YOU LIVE IN (OR IF YOUR PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS IS IN) THE UNITED STATES, PLEASE READ THE BINDING ARBITRATION CLAUSE AND CLASS ACTION WAIVER IN SECTION 9. IT AFFECTS HOW DISPUTES ARE RESOLVED.

Thank you for choosing Microsoft!

Depending on how you obtained the Windows software, this is a license agreement between (i) you and the device manufacturer or software installer that distributes the software to your device, or (ii) you and Microsoft Corporation (or, based on where you live or if a business where your principal place of business is located, one of its affiliates). If you acquired the software from a retailer, Microsoft is the device manufacturer for devices produced by Microsoft or one of its affiliates, and Microsoft is the retailer if you acquired the software directly from Microsoft.

This agreement describes your rights and the conditions upon which you may use the Windows software. You should review this agreement, including any printed paper license terms that accompany the software and any linked terms, before you accept it. You can view all of the terms and together create this agreement that applies to you. You may review linked terms by pasting the \(aka.ms/\) link into a browser window.

By accepting this agreement or using the software, you agree to all of these terms, and consent to the transmission of certain information during activation and during your use of the software as per the privacy statement described in Section 3. If you do not accept and comply with these terms, you may not use the software or its features. You may contact the device manufacturer or installer, or your retailer if you purchased the software directly, to determine its return policy and return the software or device for a refund or credit under that policy. You must comply with that policy, which might require you to return the software with the entire device in which the software is installed for a refund or credit, if any.

1. Overview.

- Applicability. This agreement applies to the Windows software that is preinstalled on your device, or acquired from a retailer and installed by you, the media on which you received the software (if any), any linked terms, images, or sound files included with the software, and any Microsoft updates, upgrades, supplements (or services) for the software, unless other terms come with them. It applies to Windows apps developed by Microsoft that provide functionality such as mail, calendar, contacts, etc., that are included with and are a part of Windows. If this agreement contains terms regarding a feature or service not available on your device, then those terms do not apply.
- Additional terms. Depending on your device, a capabilities, how it is configured, and how you use it, additional Microsoft and third party terms may apply to your use of certain features, services, and some apps.
 - Some Windows apps provide an access point to, or rely on, online services, and a use of those services is sometimes governed by separate terms and privacy policies, such as the Microsoft Services Agreement at aka.ms/microsoftservices. You can view these terms and policies by looking at the service terms of use or the app's settings, as applicable; please read them. The services may not be available in all regions.
 - The manufacturer or installer may also preinstall apps, which will be subject to separate license terms.
 - The software may include third party software such as Adobe Flash Player that is licensed under its own terms. You agree that your use of Adobe Flash Player is governed by the license terms for Adobe Systems Incorporated at aka.ms/adobe/flash. Adobe and Flash are either registered trademarks or trademarks of Adobe Systems Incorporated in the United States and/or other countries.
 - The software may include third party programs that Microsoft, not the third party, licenses to you under this agreement. Notices, if any, for the third party program are included for your information only.

2. Installation and Use Rights.

- License. The software is licensed, not sold. Under this agreement, we grant you the right to install and use one instance on your device (the licensed device), for use by one person at a time, so long as you comply with all the terms of this agreement. Updating or upgrading from non-genuine software with software from Microsoft or authorized sources does not make your original version or the updated/upgraded version genuine, and in that situation, you do not have a license to use the software.
- Device. In this agreement, "device" means a physical hardware system with an internal storage device capable of running the software. A hardware partition or blade is considered to be a device.
- Restrictions. The manufacturer or installer and Microsoft reserve all rights (such as rights under intellectual property laws) not expressly granted in this agreement. For example, this license does not give you any right to, and you may not:
 - use or virtualize features of the software separately;
 - publish, copy (other than the permitted backup copy), rent, lease, or lend the software;
 - transfer the software (except as permitted by the agreement);
 - work around any technical restrictions or limitations on the software;
 - use the software on a server or network, for commercial hosting, make the software available for simultaneous use by multiple users over a network, install the software on a server, and allow users to access it remotely, or install the software on a device for use only by remote users;
 - reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble the software, or attempt to do so, except if the laws where you live (or if a business where your principal place of business is located) permit this even when this agreement does not. In that case, you may do only what your law allows; and
 - when using Internet-based features you may not use those features in any way that could interfere with anyone else's use of them, or to try to gain access to or use any service, data, account, or network, in an unauthorized manner.
- Multi use scenarios.
 - Multiple versions. If when acquiring the software you were provided with multiple versions (such as 32-bit and 64-bit versions), you may install and activate only one of those versions at a time.
 - Multiple or pooled connections. Hardware or software you use to multiplex or pool connections, or reduce the number of devices or users that access or use the software, does not reduce the number of licenses you need. You may only use such hardware or software if you have a license for each instance of the software you are using.
 - Device connections. You may allow up to 20 other devices to access the software installed on the licensed device for the purpose of using the following software features: file services, print services, Internet connection services, and Internet connection sharing and telephony services on the licensed device. The 20 connection limit applies to devices that access the software indirectly through "multiplexing" or other software or hardware that pools connections. You may allow any number of devices to access the software on the licensed device to synchronize data between devices. This section does not mean, however, that you have the right to install the software, or use the primary function of the software (other than the features listed in this section), on any of these other devices.
 - Remote access. Users may access the licensed device from other devices using remote access technology but only on devices separately licensed to run the same or higher edition of the software.
